Re: Duran v. J.P. Morgan Chase & Co.
Civil Action No. 1:24-cv-03514-JLR (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Rochon:

Plaintiffs LilyBeth Duran and Daniel Walton (“Plaintiffs”) and Defendant J.P. Morgan Chase & Co. (“JPMC” and collectively with Plaintiffs, the “Parties”) write pursuant to Section 1(F) of your Honor’s Individual Practices and in connection with the order setting the initial pretrial conference, ECF No. 17. The Parties jointly write to request that the initial pretrial conference set for August 15, 2024 be continued an additional 30 days. The Parties further request that Plaintiffs’ obligation to file a consolidated amended complaint be extended 30 days to September 17, 2024.

The Parties met and conferred on August 2, 2024, in accordance with the order setting the initial pretrial conference. During the conference, the parties discussed the factual background of this matter, potential pleadings challenges JPMC may bring, and the prospect of resolving the case. Following a productive conversation, the parties agreed to engage in additional discussions over the next month to explore a potential resolution of this matter.

Accordingly, the Parties seek a 30-day continuance of the initial pretrial conference as well as a 30-day extension of Plaintiffs’ obligation to file a consolidated amended complaint to September 17, 2024. This is Plaintiffs’ first requested extension of time in this matter. JPMC has previously been granted two 30-day extensions to answer, move, or otherwise respond to Plaintiffs’ original complaints in the Duran and Walton matters pending Plaintiffs’ request for consolidation. This request does not affect any other scheduled dates.
